DAMAGES

Dept: 10C
Judge: James V. Selna
Demand for jury trial.

1 COME NOW Plaintiffs, by and through counsel, to show the Court the 2 following:

3 INTRODUCTION

4 This is a case to vindicate Plaintiff CHAD FARNAN's rights pursuant to the 5 United States Constitution. Plaintiff's rights are violated each day he attends 6 Defendant DR. JAMES CORBETT'S history class. Defendants' conduct is a 7 violation of the constitutional guarantee found in the Establishment Clause through 8 their exhibition of hostility toward religion and endorsement of irreligion in a public 9 high school classroom.

10 JURISDICTION

11 1. This civil rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 raises federal claims 12 under the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

13 2. This Court has original jurisdiction over the federal law claims by 14 operation of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343.

15 3. This Court has authority to issue the requested injunctive relief under 16 28 U.S.C. § 1343; the requested declaratory relief under 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201-02; the 17 requested damages under 28 U.S.C. § 1343; and costs and attorneys' fees under 18 42 U.S.C. § 1988(b).

19 VENUE

20 4. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), venue is proper in the United States District
21 Court for the Central District of California, Southern Division because a substantial 22 part of the events giving rise to the claim occurred within the District.

23 IDENTIFICATION OF THE PLAINTIFFS

24 5. Plaintiff CHAD FARNAN, a minor, is and was at all times relevant to 25 this Complaint a student at Capistrano Valley High School and a resident of Mission 26 Viejo in Orange County, California.

1 12. Chad is a Christian who adheres firmly to the Christian faith and 2 practices its tenets.

3 13. Chad's school counselor informed him that in order to possibly attain 4 admission to either the University of Southern California or the University of 5 California at Los Angeles, both highly selective schools, it is necessary to take 6 Advanced Placement European History.

7 14. On a regular basis during the Fall 2007 semester, Dr. Corbett discussed
8 a wide variety of topics not related to Advanced Placement European History.
9 While teaching the subject of the class and while discussing various other topics, Dr.
10 Corbett makes statements and expresses viewpoints that are derogatory, disparaging, 11 and belittling regarding religion and Christianity in particular.

12 15. Dr. Corbett made the following statements during one single class
13 period, October 19, 2007, while teaching the Advanced Placement European History
14 class at Capistrano Valley High School:

15 a. "How do you get the peasants to oppose something that is in their best 16 interest? Religion. You have to have something that is irrational to 17 counter that rational approach....[W]hen you put on your Jesus glasses, 18 you can't see the truth."

19 b. "Now, the Boy Scouts have said, unless you're willing to love God, and 20 unless you're willing to – unless you're not gay, um – they are saying, 21 being gay excludes you. Not believing God or not professing a belief in 22 God also excludes you....But you see, until they started these rules, 23 Boy Scouts used to – or Boy Scout troops usually met at schools, and 24 places like that, parks, government buildings. They can't do that 25 anymore. They can't do that anymore, because now they are, in their 26 own mind, a homophobic and a racist organization. It's that 27 simple....It's call[ed] separation of church and state. The Boy Scouts 28 can't have it both ways. If they want to be an exclusive, Christian

1 organization or an exclusive, God-fearing organization, then they can't 2 receive any more support from the state, and shouldn't."

3 c. "People – in the industrialized world the people least likely to go to 4 church are the Swedes. The people in the industrialized world most 5 likely to go to church are the Americans. America has the highest 6 crime rate of all industrialized nations, and Sweden has the lowest. The 7 next time somebody tells you religion is connected with morality, you 8 might want to ask them about that. Um, and let's see. Is there 9 something else on that? No."

10 d. "U.S. regulators – U.S. regulators say they added new warnings about 11 the potential risks of sudden hearing loss for men who are using Viagra, 12 Cialis, or Levitra. So what they have been be telling you all these 13 years, that you'll go blind, isn't true; but you will go deaf. And now 14 what I think – some Canadian has to get this, but I have a suspicion, if 15 you went down the list of side effects, of possible side effects, of this 16 drug, you could – you could really – I mean, somebody who had all the 17 side effects would be pretty fun. I mean, there is, after all, the four-18 hour thing. So, you know, you know, if you run into somebody who is, 19 you know, deaf and whose pants felt stiff, he's probably using the 20 drug....They're happy, but they're deaf.

21 e. "After an outbreak of pregnancies among middle school girls, 22 education officials in the city [of Brooklyn, Maine] had decided to 23 make birth control pills available at the middle school health
24 centers....' [O]ther people say, you know, we shouldn't be teaching 25 our kids how to have sex safely. We should be teaching our kids 26 abstinence. Well, we know abstinence doesn't work. And we know 27 one other thing; and that is, once people become sexually active, they 28 often don't stop for, like, 40 or 50 years. I mean, generally, when you

1 start you don't, like, have a conversion and try to become re-virginized, 2 you know. It's not going to happen."

3 UNKNOWN STUDENT: "Isn't it sort of like to urge more girls to have 4 sex?"

5 DR. CORBETT: ...Let's say – and there is a lot of reasons women take 6 birth control pills, including just, you know, organizing a period so that 7 it happens – instead of randomly, that it happens at the right time. So, 8 you know, let's say, for the sake of argument, that there is a girl in here 9 that a doctor gave birth control pills to because she needed to regulate 10 her cycle. Girls, as soon as you start taking those pills, at the moment, 11 you're going to be going, 'Whoopie. Time to have sex.' I don't think 12 so. You know, so the argument that it's just going to make them have 13 sex is just absurd. If that were true, girls, then the first time somebody 14 takes you out on a date and halfway through the date pulls out a 15 condom, and says, 'Hey, we're safe. Let's go,' all the girls would say, 16 'Sure.' But they're not gonna say that, you know. Um, now, uh, you 17 know, the arguments – the way it works is, parents have to give 18 permission for their child to go to the health center. But they do not 19 have to have parental permission to get the birth control pills. And, in 20 fact, it's confidential....So, you know, some parents are objecting, 21 saying it's taking too much power away from the parents. Parents are 22 pretty irresponsible. And so is the Bush administration with its 23 abstinence policy. Spending billions of dollars on something they 24 know doesn't work, wonderful. Wonderful. Idiotic. Um, birth control 25 pills for middle school girls. My mother has a solution to this problem.
26 And I'm sure the girls were careful. My mother thinks that all the boys, 27 when they reach puberty, should be given a reversible vasectomy...."

1 f. "...[C]onservatives don't want women to avoid pregnancies. That's 2 interfering with God's work. You got to stay pregnant, barefoot, and in 3 the kitchen and have babies until your body collapses. All over the 4 world, doesn't matter where you go, the conservatives want control over 5 women's reproductive capacity. Everywhere in the world. From 6 conservative Christians in this country to, um, Muslim fundamentalists 7 in Afghanistan. It's the same. It's stunning how vitally interested they 8 are in controlling women."

9 g. "Um, freedom of expression, freedom of censorship. It just makes it a 10 major literary center of activity. Because religious reforms, now, here –
11 you know, again, boy, I'll tell you. It does put me in mind of the culture 12 wars that are going on in the United States today. I mean, here is 13 Joseph II. He's trying, for example, to end serfdom. Serfdom in which 14 the peasants, the Serb class, on these estates worked, literally, 15 property. They had no rights to speak of at all. He doesn't just go that 16 far. I mean, he tries to get them land. He tries to set them – I mean, um 17 – he really has the interest of this class of people at heart, and the – the 18 reforms that he makes really are going to make the lives of these 19 peasants massively better. So why do the peasants oppose him?
20 ...Because he also tried to reform religion, and the peasants love their 21 church. It's the same thing here. You know, you go down to Georgia, 22 Alabama, Mississippi, all these states that are as red as they could 23 possibly be, as right-wing Republican as you could possibly be. When 24 you first present these people with the economic policies of the 25 Democratic party, they are all Democrats. Virtually all the social 26 programs, they like. They lead the Democratic party on social issues.
27 That's it. Social issues, can you imagine what they're saying on Rush 28 Limbaugh now? About, 'Middle school people in New England giving

1 people birth control pills. My God. What next?' I love Rush
2 Limbaugh. A fat, pain in the ass liar. And, boy, is he a liar.
3 Unbelievable. Um, anyway, the guaranteed freedom of religion for 4 Jewish people, that upset a lot of Catholics, um, Protestants. That upset 5 a lot of Catholics, trying to get people to tolerate other religions. But, 6 come on. The church is there. The local priest is there telling them, 7 'Joseph II is satanic. He's like those Democrats that will be around in 8 another 300 years.'"

9 h. "...If you're poor, and you live in the inner city, um, chances are 10 actually greater that one parent will be at home, and that you will be 11 living in an apartment. You guys, most of you, have parents, two 12 parents, who work. And if you want to smoke a joint, you can walk out 13 into the backyard, sit down by the swimming pool, and smoke it. You 14 do not have to worry about some cop driving by and busting you. In 15 the inner city, you can't smoke with your mom in the apartment, so you 16 go down to the street corner. There is no place to hide. They get 17 busted all the time there. Here, you know, the dealers – I'm sure there 18 are people in here who know people who will sell pot. That's one of the 19 ironies of teaching here and one of the ironies of our own judicial 20 system is that – every year I ask my class this question, and every year I 21 know what the answer is. I say, if – I'm not going to do this. Let's get 22 that straight. If I made this offer – I am not making this offer. If I 23 made this offer, and the offer is: The first person who leaves this room 24 for lunch, who comes back with either alcohol or marijuana will get an 25 'A' for the year. What would I have? Alcohol or pot?

26 THE CLASS: Pot.

27 DR. CORBETT: So the illegal substance is more available to you than 28 the legal substance. Anyway, um, you know, we've had several

1 presidential commissions look into our judicial system, penal system, 2 and they've all concluded the same thing: It simply doesn't work. And 3 the systems in other nations do work. Sweden, for example, the longest 4 you can spend in prison for a crime – machine-gunned a kindergarten 5 class – the longest you can spend in prison is 10 years.

6 UNKNOWN STUDENT: Oh, what?

7 DR. CORBETT: Why are you outraged by that? They have the lowest 8 crime rate in the industrialized world. Where would you rather live if 9 you're worried about crime? Here or there....There, obviously.”

10 i. “So we know what rehabilitation works and that punishment doesn't, 11 and yet we go on punishing. It really has a lot to do with these same 12 culture wars we're talking about. This whole Biblical notion: Sinners
13 need to be punished. And so you get massively more Draconian
14 punishment in the South where religion is much more central to society 15 than you do anyplace else. And, of course, the Southerners get really 16 upset, as what they see as lenient behavior in the North. You know, 17 we're going to solve this problem. Except, guess what? What part of 18 the country has the highest murder rate? The South. What part of the 19 country has the highest rape rate? The South. What part of the country 20 has the highest...church attendance? The South. Oh, wait a minute.
21 You mean there is not a correlation between these things? No, there 22 isn't. Um, in fact, there is an inverse correlation. In those places where 23 people go to church the least, the crime was the most. And that's not 24 just Sweden and the United States. That's Pennsylvania and Georgia.
25 It's not even true.”

26 16. Parents and/or students have complained to the District for many years 27 regarding Dr. Corbett’s religious hostility expressed in his classroom. Additionally, 28

1 parents and/or students have complained directly to Dr. Corbett regarding the 2 content of his “teaching” and comments he has made in the classroom.

3 17. Dr. Corbett continues to spend a large portion of class time propagating 4 his personal views to a captive audience, his high school history class. In doing so, 5 he clearly demonstrates hostility towards religion and favors irreligion over religion.
6 As a result of his ongoing comments, Christian students in the class, including Mr.
7 Farnan, feel ostracized and treated as second-class citizens.

8 18. Mr. Farnan is uncomfortable going to class and feels like Dr. Corbett 9 has created an atmosphere where he cannot effectively learn, both because and 10 regardless of his religious beliefs.

11
12 ALLEGATIONS OF LAW

13 19. All alleged acts of the Defendants, their officers, agents, servants,

17 20. Unless and until the enforcement of the Defendants’ current Policy is 18 enjoined, the Plaintiffs will continue to suffer irreparable harm to their federal and 19 state constitutional rights.

20 21. The irreparable harm to the Plaintiffs’ constitutional rights is a direct 21 result of a policy, ordinance, regulation, or decision officially adopted by 22 Defendants.
