NCSE and the Grand Canyon 2012 [3]

Explore the Grand Canyon with NCSE! Seats are now available for NCSE's next excursion [4] to the Grand Canyon — as featured [5] in The New York Times (October 6, 2005). From July 16 to 24, 2012, NCSE will again explore the wonders of creation and evolution on a Grand Canyon river run conducted by NCSE's Genie Scott and Steve Newton. Because this is an NCSE trip, we offer more than just the typically grand float down the Canyon, the spectacular scenery, fascinating natural history, brilliant night skies, exciting rapids, delicious meals, and good company. It is, in fact, a unique "two-model" raft trip, on which we provide both the creationist view of the Grand Canyon (maybe not entirely seriously) and the evolutionist view — and let you make up your own mind. To get a glimpse of the fun, watch the short videos filmed during the 2011 trip, posted [6] on NCSE's YouTube site. The cost of the excursion is $2625; a deposit of $500 will hold your spot. Seats are limited: call, write, or e-mail [7] now.
