NCSE is pleased to congratulate Jason R. Wiles on receiving the Evolution Education Award for 2016 from the National Association of Biology Teachers and the Excellence in Teaching Award for 2016 from the Association of College and University Biology Educators.

The NABT award [4], sponsored by BEACON and BSCS, "recognizes innovative classroom teachers and their efforts to promote the accurate understanding of biological evolution with the larger community," while the ACUBE award [5] "is offered annually to honor faculty who both practice and promote effective, innovative teaching in the biology classroom."

A longtime member of NCSE and a contributor to Reports of the NCSE (for example, his "Is Evolution Arkansas's Hidden Curriculum?" published [6] in 2005), Wiles is Associate Professor of Biology at Syracuse University.
