RNCSE 37:2 now on-line [3]

NCSE is pleased to announce that the latest issue of Reports of the National Center for Science Education is now available on-line. The issue — volume 37, number 2 — is the sixth issue in the newsletter's new, streamlined, and full-color format.

Featured are Stephanie Keep's interview of climatologist Ben Santer; Randy Moore's discussion of a creationist museum in Abilene, Texas; Emily Schoerning's report on NCSE's Science Booster Club program; Ann Reid's review of Michael E. Mann and Tom Toles's The Madhouse Effect; and Claire Adrian-Tucci's introduction to the members of NCSE's Teacher Advisory Board.

The entire issue is freely available in PDF form from <http://reports.ncse.com> [4]. Members of NCSE will have already received the issue in the mail, and will be receiving the next issue of Reports in early 2017. (Not a member? Join [5] today!)
